

Contents

1. Overview of Reading Comprehension	1
What Do Good and Poor Readers Do Related to Reading Comprehension?	3
To What Degree Do the Foundational Skills of Phonics, Fluency, and Vocabulary Influence Reading Comprehension?	5
What Is Involved in Reading Comprehension?	8
Conclusion	12
2. Assessing Reading Comprehension	13
Limitations of Traditional Comprehension Assessment Procedures	15
Reading Comprehension Measures	16
Conclusion	41
3. Vocabulary Instruction	46
How Does Teaching Vocabulary Facilitate Reading Comprehension?	47
How Can We Assess and Monitor Vocabulary Learning?	48
Assessing Vocabulary	49
What Are the Best Practices for Promoting Vocabulary Acquisition?	56
Conclusion	69
4. Text Structure and Reading Comprehension	75
Text Structure and Students with Learning Disabilities	76
Narrative Story Structure	77
Expository Text Structure	87
Conclusion	96

5. Instructional Practices That Promote Reading Comprehension

Instructional Practices in Reading Comprehension for Students with Learning Disabilities 102

Before Reading 103

During and after Reading 107

Conclusion 124

6. Multicomponent Approaches to Strategy Instruction

Reciprocal Teaching 131

Transactional Strategies Instruction 136

Collaborative Strategic Reading 139

Conclusion 147

Glossary

Appendix: Reading Comprehension Websites

References

Index